Series 1 - Orgasmic Relationships :

If you want what visible reality can give, you're an employee.

*If you want the unseen world,
you're not living your truth.*

Both wishes are foolish, but you'll be forgiven for forgetting that what you really want is love's confusing joy.

Rumi

"All we need iz Love"

John Lennon

Most of us on the healers path readily agree with and often proclaim, Rumi's and Lennon's views about the central importance of Love. We "get" Love. We sustain entire industries creating and collecting songs, books & paintings to praise It.

Love iz our thing.

It's what we're all about.

We're It's strongest champions, It's biggest fans.

Yet, underneath the velvet eyes and moonbeam smiles, far too many spiritually enlightened min & wombn find ourselves woefully frustrated in our love relationships at home.

Of course, it doesn't have to be this way.

Nor, do you need to suffer your way through to "the other side" of whatever's standing between you and enjoying the shared Bliss of a truly Orgasmic Relationship.

I've chosen to begin the Bliss Now Teleseminars with this topic because, like you, I believe and know that living and being in/as Love to the fullest, is our greatest Power and hope. Not only do you deserve to know the keys to creating Orgasmic Relationships, your soul's purpose and the healing our world is longing for you to reveal, depends on it.

the Other Lover - Dealing with Jealousy & Arousal on Your Bliss Path

Your lover is jealous of you spending so much time on your "work". You tell them they're being paranoid, but underneath it all you feel guilty because this "work" really does Turn You On. Is it cheating to be sexually aroused by your Sacred Path, it's teachers or you healing clients? Can you admit in a way that doesn't end your relationship???

For the month of February
a Special Bliss Now Double Dip for Your V-Day Pleasure

Love iz all about communication - at least that's what all the 'experts' tell us. But how can we communicate with authenticity, when we don't even speak the same languages...or know the truth of our own sexual tongue? Masculine and Feminine energies have clearly distinct ways of thinking, speaking & acting in the world. Learning and embracing the beauty of these differences iz the foundation of conscious living & loving.
